Dear Mr. Weiss:

Our President, Mr. Hales, has requested that we transmit to you our comments and corrections regarding your foot-note in La Cosmogonie d'Urantia. They are enclosed.

These comments are made on the assumption that there will be placed in the front of each volume a statement that the footnotes are not a part of the original edition of The Urantia Book and that they are the sole responsibility of the translator.

Most of the footnotes consist of Bible references to some of the many quotations in the book. (We have found almost all of the quotations.) While we do not agree with many of the references, we have commented only on those which we believe you would like to change and which can be easily corrected.

Concerning the footnotes explaining the text, while we would prefer that they be omitted (and we do not agree with some of them), here again we have commented only on those which we feel are definitely wrong.

Sincerely,

Edith E. Cook
Treasurer
