Mr. Jacques Weiss
28, Rue Cambaceres
Paris - VIII, France

Dear Mr. Weiss:

Miss Brown sent us your letter of October 22, knowing we would be interested in your comments on the Urantia Book, and indeed we are. We are delighted that you like it so much.

We are not sending another book until we find out exactly what you want. You mention a new edition with an index. There will not be another edition for quite a few years, I believe. The index, which is in preparation now, is taking much longer than we anticipated. But when it is completed (probably within the next year) it will be published as a separate volume, and will be quite complete, something in the nature of a concordance. We will let you know when it is ready.

Under the circumstances, we weren't sure whether you wanted one book or two books. The price of the book is $10.00. We are a small organization and are not set up to have credit accounts, so we would appreciate your sending your check when you order the book. It should be made out to the Urantia Brotherhood Corporation and sent to this address.

Cordially,

Secretary-General

Marian Rowley
