Dear Clyde:

It was nice to get such a long and newsy letter from you under date of December 20th. Just to think the way time is going by. I had the old Forum register out the other day recounting some things to the First Urantia Society. Saw your name away back on the pioneer roster.

I had my second round with a coronary in September, and I guess I really was sick this time, but I got through all right--never felt better in my life than I do now.

I got the notion from some one that you were going to be in these parts one of these days, and I hope I heard right. It will indeed be a pleasure to have a visit with you.

I have the first volume of the French translation of the Urantia Book, and it is a very nice job. We are all working hard on the Index, and I am sure the coming year will see the conclusion of that task.

Sincerely yours,

William S. Sadler
