

The Power of Love

What is Love?

“...love is the greatest thing in the universe...Love is the desire to do good to others.” (P648:4, 56:10.21)

“I declare to you that my Father in Paradise does rule a universe of universes by the compelling power of his love. Love is the greatest of all spirit realities.” (P1608:2, 143:1.4)

All true love comes from God

“All true love is from God, and man receives the divine affection as he himself bestows this love upon his fellows. Love is dynamic. It can never be captured; it is alive, free, thrilling, and always moving. Man can never take the love of the Father and imprison it within his heart. The Father’s love can become real to mortal man only by passing through that man’s personality as he in turn bestows this love upon his fellows.” (P1289:3, 117:6.10)

Love for others

“While you cannot observe the divine spirit at work in your minds, there is a practical method of discovering the degree to which you have yielded the control of your soul powers to the teaching and guidance of this indwelling spirit of the heavenly Father, and that is the degree of your love for your fellow men.” (P1642:2, 146:3.6)

“You cannot truly love your fellows by a mere act of the will...It is not so important to love all men today as it is that each day you learn to love one more human being ... Love is infectious, and when human devotion is intelligent and wise, love is more catching than hate. But only genuine and unselfish love is truly contagious. If each mortal could only become a focus of dynamic affection, this benign virus of love would soon pervade the sentimental emotion-stream of humanity to such an extent that all civilization would be encompassed by love, and that would be the realization of the brotherhood of man.” (P1098:3, 100:4.6)

“Devote your life to proving that love is the greatest thing in the world. It is the love of God that impels men to seek salvation. Love is the ancestor of all spiritual goodness, the essence of the true and the beautiful.” (P2047:5, 192:2.1)

P1776:2, 160:2.8 The enthusiasm for living
P1922:1, 177:2.3 ...supreme reality...
Paper 180: Sec. 1 The New Commandment

The Urantia Book is a wake-up call to our planet from the rest of the inhabited universe, telling us where we are, who we are, and why we are, as individuals and as a collective human family. It is also the story of why up to now we have been largely ignorant of our origins, history, and destiny, and of our place in the vast universe that our small world has always had a beloved place in, no matter how blind we've been to that. We have never been alone, as individuals nor as a world, and now The Urantia Book is given us to reveal our true home—that of our world in space and that of our individual beings in the heart of the eternal Creator. The spirit of God lives within each of us, to guide us through the universe after this life to his presence at the Source and Center of all things. Finally, the book is also a year by year, day by day, even minute by minute account of the life and teachings of Joshua ben Joseph, Jesus of Nazareth, told by eyewitnesses to the events of the noblest and most selfless life ever lived, a story not limited by human vision and understanding that clarifies and illuminates the Biblical account.
